Federal agencies spent more than $385 billion in contract dollars during FY2010. The GSA Schedule program is a vital procurement tool for the federal government as well as a potential source of nearly limitless revenue for GSA Schedule vendors. However, winning a Schedule award can be a complex, time consuming and costly process and, it simply isn't the right fit for every business.

Presenters:

- Myron Cowell – Director of Sales, EZGSA
- Myron Cowell has twelve years of experience in the government consulting field and has expert qualifications in all areas of the federal marketplace, including GSA Schedule awards/renewals, government registration requirements (CCR, ORCA, NAICS codes), government contract management and federal sales strategies. After joining EZGSA as Senior Sales Manager in 2003, Mr. Cowell was promoted to Director of Sales in 2006.
- As Director of Sales, Mr. Cowell serves as the primary point of contact for prospective clients that are interested in selling their products and services to the federal government via the GSA Schedule. Mr. Cowell also travels throughout the United States as a representative of EZGSA at seminars, trade shows and networking events.
- Prior to EZGSA, Mr. Cowell worked for Infinity Consulting Group and Glotel, Inc., where he held Senior Account Manager positions in sales and recruiting. He was responsible for negotiating contracts, developing relationships with distributors and managing the company's sales organizations. Mr. Cowell began his career at Telco Communications Group after earning a B.S. at Towson University in Maryland.
