“Starting a Business in a Slow Economy” A Business Planning & Counseling Workshop

The Jacksonville State University Small Business Development Center (JSU SBDC) will be offering a FREE workshop for prospective or existing business owners about starting a business in a slow economy. The workshop will focus on business planning, loans, SBA loan guarantees, and a discussion of potential businesses that can be opened with low start-up costs.

The workshop will be held on June 9, 2011, from 2:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m. at the following location:

Carver Community Center
720 West 14th St.
Anniston, Alabama

The workshop is FREE, but advanced registration is requested.

To register or for more information, contact the JSU SBDC office at (256) 782-5271 or sbdc@jsu.edu.

The workshop's cooperating organizations are: Small Business Administration and the JSU Center for Economic Development.
