THE REVISED YELLOW BOOK

The U.S. Government Accountability Office has proposed a revision to Government Auditing Standards (the "yellow book") which will effect substantial changes in who may conduct audits under GAO standards and how those audits will be conducted.

July 18, 2011 - Grand Hotel, Point Clear, AL (11-G718)

TESTING COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND REGULATIONS IN A GOVERNMENTAL AUDIT

AICPA Standards require that auditors obtain reasonable assurance about material misstatements as a result of noncompliance with laws and regulations that have a direct and material effect on the financial statements. This course addresses the GAAS requirements for the typical governmental laws and regulations and focuses on meeting the documentation requirements.

2011 GOVERNMENTAL ACCOUNTING AND AUDITING UPDATE

The Governmental Accounting and Auditing Update is designed to provide its participants with a comprehensive, in-depth review of what's happening at the GASB, AICPA, GAO and OMB, including GASB Statements and Interpretations, Statements on Auditing Standards, Auditing Interpretations, Audit Guides, Statements of Position, exposure drafts and projects in progress, with emphasis on the practical application and impact on practitioners in small to medium sized firms and members in government.

July 20, 2011 - Grand Hotel, Point Clear, AL (11-G720)

Testimonials from our 2010 governmental auditing seminars...

- Michael Inzina is the most interesting and best instructor I have ever had! I would be a better CPA today if I had the chance to work with him. He is one of the best!
- Great presenter! Knows the material, is entertaining.
